3.4 Additional Information

Our website provides additional information that may be useful including information about currency transactions and payment solutions, a resource centre and information relating to our company history. You must note that any information in this PDS or on our website does not take into account your personal financial circumstances and needs.

4. FOREIGN EXCHANGE OVERVIEW

Foreign Exchange refers to the purchase of one currency and the sale of another currency at an agreed Exchange Rate simultaneously. Separate from the Exchange Rate, you will need to consider the relevant fees associated with your transaction. Our fees for Vanilla Options are described in Section 5.7 "Cost of a Vanilla Option" of this PDS.

4.1 The Foreign Exchange Market

Vanilla Options are not entered into on an authorised exchange such as a stock market. There is no official benchmark Exchange Rate for Vanilla Options. The foreign exchange market is referred to as an "Over-The-Counter (OTC)" market, which means that Exchange Rates when compared between providers will often vary.

Exchange Rates are quoted on the Interbank Market, which is a wholesale market for Authorised Exchange Dealers, with Interbank Exchange Rates fluctuating according to supply and demand. This market is restricted to Authorised Exchange Dealers and banks that constantly quote to each other at wholesale Exchange Rates and in minimum parcel sizes.

Factors that influence supply and demand (and therefore the Exchange Rate quoted to you) include:

- investment inflows/outflows;
- market sentiment or expectations;
- economic and political influences including geo political influence; and
- import/export of goods and services.

Exchange Rates quoted in the media generally refer to Interbank Exchange Rates and will usually differ from Exchange Rates quoted to you.

Because Vanilla Options are traded OTC with WUBS you will not be able to sell or transfer your transaction with another provider. You will only be able to reverse or cancel your Vanilla Option with WUBS.

4.2 Currency limitations

While WUBS endeavours to ensure that you are provided with access to the Currency Pair of your choice, WUBS does not guarantee that it will offer Vanilla Options in all Currency Pairs. This may arise for a number of reasons including restrictions that are imposed on WUBS or WUBS not having access to certain currencies through its Correspondent Banks.

5. VANILLA OPTIONS

5.1 What is a Vanilla Option

A Vanilla Option is an agreement between two parties (you as 'the buyer' of the Vanilla Option and WUBS as the 'the seller' of the Vanilla Option) that gives you the right but not the obligation to exchange an amount of one currency for an amount of another currency at an agreed Exchange Rate on an agreed date in the future (Expiry Date). A Vanilla Option may be a Put Option (a right to sell currency) or a Call Option (a right to buy currency).

Vanilla Options enable you to protect a worst case Exchange Rate. They allow you to Hedge your currency exposure by providing protection against unfavourable currency movements between the time that you buy a Vanilla Option and the Expiry Date. At the same time you are also able to participate in any favourable currency movements that exist on the Expiry Date.

When you enter into a Vanilla Option you will be required to pay a non-refundable Premium for the Vanilla Option. This is described further in in Section 5.7 "Cost of a Vanilla Option": Because you have purchased the right but not the obligation to Exercise the Vanilla Option, you will not have to effect Settlement of the Vanilla Option if you elect not to Exercise.

5.2 Vanilla Option Variables

When you buy a Vanilla Option you nominate:

- the Currency Pair;
- the Notional Amount;
- the Strike Rate; and
- the Expiry Date.

The Currency Pair in your Vanilla Option must be acceptable to WUBS.

WUBS only offers "European" style Vanilla Options. This means that you may only Exercise the Vanilla Option on the Expiry Date.

5.3 Vanilla Option at Expiry

At the Expiry Date of a Vanilla Option the prevailing Spot Rate that applies to the Currency Pair will either be less favourable than the Strike Rate or more favourable than the Strike Rate.

- If the Spot Rate is less favourable than the Strike Rate

It will be more advantageous for you to Exercise your Vanilla Option and exchange the Currency Pair. You will then be required to exchange currencies with WUBS at the Strike Price two (2) Business Days after the Expiry Date.

- If the Spot Rate is more favourable than the Strike Rate

It will be more advantageous for you to let your Vanilla Option lapse. This is because the Spot Rate on the Expiry Date will provide you with a more favourable Exchange Rate than the Strike Rate. As a result you may choose to exchange currencies at the more favourable Spot Rate.

5.4 Exercising a Vanilla Option

To Exercise your Vanilla Option you need to:

- Provide WUBS with an Exercise Notice. WUBS is obligated and must accept the Exercise Notice.
- An Exercise Notice to WUBS must be given no later than 3.00 PM Tokyo time (Expiry Time) on the Expiry Date or as detailed on the trade Confirmation.
- An Exercise Notice can be given to WUBS by Phone, Fax, or Electronic Mail (Email).

If your Vanilla Option is In-The-Money (ITM) (i.e. the prevailing Spot Rate is less favourable than the Strike Rate) we will Exercise the option if we are not in receipt of an Exercise Notice from you.

If a Vanilla Option is not Exercised it will lapse at the Expiry Time.

5.5 Terminating/Closing a Vanilla Option

You may ask us to close a Vanilla Option at any time up to the Expiry Time on the Expiry Date. WUBS will provide you with a quote for the cost of such cancellation. These costs may be significant. WUBS' quote will be based on the cost of reversing or offsetting your Vanilla Option at the time of your request. The same variables that are relevant to the determination of the Premium will be relevant to determining this cost. These are set out in Section 5.7 "Cost of a Vanilla Option" below.

If you accept the quote the Vanilla Option will be terminated and you may lose money as a result.

5.6 Examples of a Vanilla Option

The examples used for each Vanilla Option in this Section 5.6 are for illustrative purposes only, and use rates and figures that we have selected to demonstrate how each product works. They do not reflect the specific circumstances that may arise under Vanilla Options entered into by you. In order to assess the merits of any particular Vanilla Option you should use the actual rates and figures quoted at the relevant time.

5.6.1 Vanilla Put Options

An Australian importer needs to pay USD100,000 in three (3) months' time for goods purchased overseas. The importer can buy the USD in three (3) months' time but cannot budget the right amount of AUD because the Exchange Rate in three (3) months' time is unknown.

If the importer did nothing, the amount of AUD needed to pay in three (3) months' time for the USD100,000 will depend on the prevailing Exchange Rate quoted at that time.

If the AUD/USD Exchange Rate goes up (AUD appreciates), less AUD will be required when it comes time to pay for the USD and the importer is in a more favourable position.

If the AUD/USD Exchange Rate goes down (AUD depreciates), more AUD will be required when it comes time to pay for the USD and the importer is in a less favourable position.

The importer can eliminate its exposure to the Exchange Rate depreciating below a certain Exchange Rate by buying an AUD Put Option (an option to sell AUD against USD). This will enable the importer to protect a worst case

Exchange Rate while giving it the opportunity to participate in favourable Exchange Rate movements at the Expiry Date.

The current Spot Rate is 0.7550 and the Forward Exchange Rate is 0.7480.

The importer enters into an AUD Put Option with the following terms (nominating the Strike Price, Notional Amount and Expiry Date):

- Currency Pair: AUD/USD;
- Option type: AUD Put Option;
- Strike Rate: 0.7500;
- Notional Amount: USD 100,000;
- Expiry Date: Three (3) months after Trade Date;
- Expiry Time: 3.00 PM Tokyo time;
- Settlement date: two (2) Business Days after the Expiry Date; and
- Premium: AUD 2,700 (calculated by WUBS, payable by the importer).

Outcome on the Expiry Date

- If the Exchange Rate is greater than 0.7500, (say 0.7900), the importer will let the AUD Put Option lapse and may use AUD to buy USD at the Exchange Rate of 0.7900 for Settlement on the Settlement date (although there is no obligation to do so). If the importer purchases USD at 0.7900 (which would cost the importer AUD126,582.28 (USD100,000/0.7900) then this is a new transaction independent of the AUD Put Option.
- If the Exchange Rate is less than 0.7500, (say 0.7100), the importer would Exercise the AUD Put Option and exchange AUD for USD at the agreed Strike Rate of 0.7500 and will pay AUD133,333.33 (USD100,000/0.7500) on the Settlement date.

In the example above if the Strike Rate nominated by the importer had been lower the Premium payable would also have been lower.

5.6.2 Vanilla Call Options

An Australian exporter will receive USD100,000 in three (3) months' time for goods it has sold overseas. The exporter can sell the USD in three (3) months' time but does not know the amount of AUD it will receive because the Exchange Rate in three (3) months' time is unknown.

If the exporter did nothing, the amount of AUD received in three (3) months' time for the USD100,000 will depend on the prevailing Exchange Rate at that time.

- If the AUD/USD Exchange Rate goes up (the AUD appreciates), less AUD will be received when it comes time to sell the USD and the exporter is in a less favourable position.
- If the AUD/USD Exchange Rate goes down (AUD depreciates), more AUD will be received when it comes time to sell the USD and the exporter is in a more favourable position.

The exporter can eliminate its exposure to the Exchange Rate appreciating above a certain Exchange Rate by buying a AUD Call Option (an option to buy AUD against USD). This will enable the exporter to protect a worst case Exchange Rate while giving it the opportunity to participate in favourable Exchange Rate movements at the Expiry Date.

The current Spot Rate is 0.7550 and the Forward Exchange Rate is 0.7480.

The exporter enters into an AUD Call Option with the following terms (nominating the Strike Rate, Notional Amount and Expiry Date):

- Currency Pair: AUD/USD;
- Option type: AUD Call Option;
- Strike Rate: 0.7700;
- Nominal Amount: USD 100,000;
- Expiry Date: three (3) months after Trade Date;
- Expiry Time: 3.00 PM Tokyo time;
- Settlement date: two (2) Business Days after the Expiry Date; and
- Premium: AUD 2,300 (calculated by WUBS and, payable by the exporter).

Outcome on the Expiry Date

- i. If the Exchange Rate is greater than 0.7700, (say 0.7900), the exporter would Exercise the AUD Call Option and exchange USD for AUD at the agreed Strike Rate of 0.7700 on the Settlement date and will receive AUD129,870.13 (USD100,000/0.7700).
- ii. If the Exchange Rate is less than 0.7700, (say 0.7400), the exporter will let the AUD Call Option lapse and may use USD to buy AUD at the prevailing Exchange Rate of 0.7400 for Settlement on the Settlement date, (although there is no obligation to do so). If the exporter sells USD at 0.7400 (receiving AUD 135,135.14) then this is a new transaction independent of the AUD Call Option.

In the example above if the Strike Rate nominated by the exporter had been higher the Premium payable would have been lower.

5.7 Cost of a Vanilla Option

5.7.1 Premium

When you buy a Vanilla Option, you will be required to pay WUBS a non-refundable Premium, in cleared funds, within two (2) Business Days of the Trade Date. WUBS will accept Premium payments in either Australian Dollars or either currency of the Vanilla Option Currency Pair. WUBS sets the Premiums it offers to you in purchasing a Vanilla Option by applying a Retail Mark Up (Mark Up) to the Interbank Premium it receives from its wholesale commercial relationships.

When calculating Premiums, WUBS takes into account the following variables on a transaction-by-transaction basis:

- the Currency Pair;
- the Notional Amount;
- the Strike Rate – the more favourable the Strike Rate you require, the higher the Premium that will be payable;
- the Expiry Date – the longer the time period between the Trade Date and Expiry Date the higher the Premium that will be payable;
- current market Exchange Rates of the underlying Currency Pair;
- the Interest Rate Differential of the countries whose currencies make up the Currency Pair; and
- market Volatility and Liquidity.

5.7.2 Transaction Fees

You will not be charged any additional entry fees for a Vanilla Option at the Trade Date but other fees or charges may apply for related services such as Wire Transfers or Drafts that are made or issued in connection with the Vanilla Option.

Transaction fees for Wire Transfers or Drafts are in addition and are separate to the Premium that you pay and the Exchange Rate conversion that will apply to converting one foreign currency to another when you Exercise a Vanilla Option. These fees are payable at the time we process a Wire Transfer for you or issue you or your nominated beneficiary with a Draft.

The transaction fee we charge you will depend upon:

- The amount and type of foreign currency to be transferred (more exotic currencies usually incur higher fees);
- The number and frequency of transactions you conduct through WUBS (an existing relationship may result in reduced fees); and
- The country that the funds are sent to (some countries are more expensive than others to deal with).

In addition to the fees charged by WUBS for sending payments by Wire Transfer or for issuing Drafts for Vanilla Options, any Correspondent, Intermediary or Beneficiary Bank(s) which facilitates the sending or payment of Wire Transfers/Drafts may impose their own additional fees or charges which may be deducted from the amount paid to you or your beneficiary. For information on these fees you need to contact the relevant financial institution.

For more information in relation to the cost of Wire Transfers/ Drafts in connection with delivery of your Vanilla Option that may be applicable, contact your WUBS Representative.

5.8 Benefits of Vanilla Options

The benefits of Vanilla Options include:

- A Vanilla Option provides protection against unfavourable movements in the Exchange Rate during the term of the Vanilla Option.
- Vanilla Options are flexible, where the Strike Rate, Expiry Date and Notional Amount can be tailored to your needs.
- Unless you Exercise your Vanilla Option you are not committed to exchange currencies at the Expiry Date. Consequently you are able to participate in favourable Exchange Rate movements.

5.9 Risks of Vanilla Options

The risks associated with Vanilla Options include:

- Market Volatility. The foreign exchange markets in which WUBS operates are OTC and can change rapidly. These markets are speculative and volatile with the risk that prices will move quickly. When this occurs the value of your Vanilla Option may be significantly less than when you entered into the contract. WUBS cannot guarantee that you will not make losses, (where your Vanilla Option is Out-of-The-Money (OTM) or that any unrealised profit or losses will remain unchanged for the term of the Vanilla Option. You need to monitor your Vanilla Options with WUBS carefully providing WUBS with Instructions before unacceptable losses occur.

- Issuer Risk. When you enter into a Vanilla Option you are relying on WUBS's financial ability as Issuer to be able to perform its obligation to you. As a result you are exposed to the risk that WUBS becomes insolvent and is unable to meet its obligations to you under a Vanilla Option. To assess our financial ability to meet our obligations to you, you can obtain a copy of our financial statements, free of charge by emailing wubscustomerserviceaustralia@westernunion.com.
- Counterparty Risk. There is a risk that the Hedging Counterparties with whom WUBS contracts to mitigate its exposure when acting as principal to the Vanilla Option (by taking related offsetting or mitigating positions) may not be able to meet their contractual obligations to WUBS. This means that WUBS could be exposed to the insolvency of its Hedging Counterparties and to defaults by Hedging Counterparties. If a Hedging Counterparty is insolvent or defaults on its obligations to WUBS, then this could give rise to a risk that WUBS defaults on its obligations to you.
- Amendments. You cannot amend or change the Expiry Date of a Vanilla Option. In that regard it is less flexible than some other foreign exchange hedging products.
- Cancellations. The close-out/cancellation of a Vanilla Option may result in a financial loss to you. WUBS will provide a quote for such services based on market conditions prevailing at the time of your request.
- Cooling-off. There is no cooling-off period. This means that once your Instruction to enter into a Vanilla Option has been accepted by WUBS you are unable to cancel your Vanilla Option without incurring a cost.
- Default Risk. In accordance with the Terms and Conditions if you fail to provide Settlement on the Value Date we may terminate your Vanilla Option. In the event that we do you will be liable for all costs that we incur.
- Conflicts of interest. WUBS enters into transactions with a number of different clients and Hedging Counterparties that may be in conflict with your interests under the Vanilla Option(s) you have entered into with us. WUBS is not required to prioritise your interests when dealing in Vanilla Options with you.

6 ORDERS, INSTRUCTIONS, CONFIRMATIONS AND TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS

The commercial terms of a particular Vanilla Option will be agreed and binding from the time your Instructions are received and accepted by us. This may occur verbally over the phone, electronically or in any other manner set out in our Terms and Conditions.

Shortly after buying a Vanilla Option from us, we will send you a Confirmation outlining the agreed commercial terms of the transaction. This Confirmation is intended to reflect the transaction that you have entered into with WUBS. It is important that you check the Confirmation to make sure that it accurately records the terms of the transaction. You should note however, that there is no cooling-off period with respect to Vanilla Options and that you will be bound once your original Instruction has been accepted by WUBS regardless of whether you sign or acknowledge a Confirmation. In the event that there is a discrepancy between your understanding of the Vanilla Option and the Confirmation it is important that you raise this with WUBS as a matter of urgency.

Conversations with our dealing room are recorded in accordance with standard market practice. We do this to ensure that we have complete records of the details of all transactions. Recorded conversations are retained for a limited time and are usually used when there is a dispute and for staff monitoring purposes. If you do not wish to be recorded you will need to inform your WUBS Representative. WUBS will not enter into any transaction over the telephone unless the conversation is recorded.

7. TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND OTHER DOCUMENTATION

7.1 Terms and Conditions

Each Vanilla Option you enter into will be subject to the Terms and Conditions for doing business with WUBS. You will be required to sign these as part of our Application for Foreign Exchange Trading before entering into a Vanilla Option with us for the first time.

The Terms and Conditions are a master agreement and set out all of the terms of the relationship between you and WUBS that are applicable to the Vanilla Options described in this PDS.

The Terms and Conditions are important and you should read them carefully before buying any Vanilla Option. They cover a number of important terms including how transactions are executed, our respective rights and obligations, events of default and rights of termination.

We recommend that you seek your own professional advice in order to fully understand the consequences of buying a Vanilla Option.

7.2 Other Information

In addition to our Terms and Conditions you will also need to provide us with the following signed documentation together with such other "Know Your Customer" information (including credit related information) that WUBS may require including a Direct Debit Request form.

A copy of this form can be obtained by contacting your WUBS Representative.

The main checks that are relevant to the accreditation of a Customer are:

- verification of a Customer's identity in accordance with relevant AML/CTF laws;
- a successful credit check conducted through a third party credit agency;
- an AML/CTF risk assessment considering relevant factors such as the nature of a Customer's business and the country where the Customer will make or receive payments; and
- a check of a Customer's principal officers and beneficial owners against relevant government issued sanction lists.

After your application has been accepted you may apply for a Vanilla Option in accordance with the Terms and Conditions.

8. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

You should address any complaint relating to the Vanilla Options described in this PDS to your WUBS Representative in the first instance.

If your complaint is unable to be resolved the matter will be automatically escalated to the relevant business unit manager. If a resolution is not reached within a reasonable time period, the matter will be further escalated to the WUBS Compliance Manager who will refer the matter to Senior Management for resolution.

All complaints are logged at each stage of the process. WUBS Complaints Handling Policy requires us to investigate and provide a resolution to you within forty-five (45) Business Days from you first making the complaint. WUBS takes complaints seriously and strives to ensure efficient and fair resolution.

If you have any enquiries about our dispute resolution process, please contact your WUBS Representative using the contact details in Section 3.1 "WUBS Contact Details" of this PDS.

9. TAXATION
